Important notices and declaration

Declaration

Subject to any rights you have under the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004, the information given is in every respect correct and complete and all material information has been disclosed to Vero, whether the information is asked for or not. Material information is information that might influence our decision to insure you and if so on what terms and/or premium. If you have any doubt as to whether a fact is material then it must be disclosed. The duty to disclose all material information occurs prior to the commencement of cover, if the contract is varied and prior to each renewal. Failure to disclose all material information may result in Vero avoiding your insurance policy. This means your policy would be deemed never to have existed and any claims would not be payable.

The information contained in this document shall be the basis of the contract between you and Vero, and you are willing to accept cover subject to Vero's policy terms, conditions, exclusions and any special terms that Vero may require.

Privacy Act 1993

Vero and AMP have collected your personal information in order to evaluate your insurance requirements for the purpose of deciding whether to issue insurance cover during the term of Vero's agreement with AMP to manufacture general insurance policies and, if so, on what terms. Failure to provide any personal information requested by Vero may result in you application for insurance being declined.

Vero and AMP have also collected your personal information in order to monitor and service your ongoing general insurance requirements, conduct market research, data processing and statistical analysis. Unless you notify AMP that you disagree, the information you supply may also be used by AMP to provide you with information about other facilities, products and services.

Your personal information is held by Vero and AMP. In accordance with the Privacy Act 1993, individuals have a right to request access to and correction of their personal information (a fee may be payable) and correction of their personal information by contacting Vero, 48 Shortland Street, Auckland 1010 or enquiring at AMP, 29 Customs Street West, Auckland.
